Why should I attend?

Service Animal Etiquette and Law Seminar is a four hour conference discussing the proper and legal way to address a disabled person with a service animal entering a business.

There have been many legal cases regarding people with assistance animals being refused entrance to businesses.

Learn how to protect your business and provide an enjoyable experience for your customers.

Power Paws Assistance Dogs is a nonprofit organization, dedicated to raising and training assistance dogs to work with children and adults with disabilities.

Service Dog Etiquette and The Law

Attendees will receive:

- Four hours of interactive lecture, including viewing of two short videos regarding service animal access to businesses
- Guest speaker: Mr. Kris Kiefer, Attorney at Law, will discuss the law as it pertains to service animals
- A booklet of resources and handouts
- Opportunity to role play, using assistance dogs in training

Location: Chandler Fashion Center in the Arthur and Louise Price Community Room, down the hall from Paradise Bakery, in the food court.
